III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	TYPE OF RECRUITMENT INITIATIVE (MENU SELECTION)	BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY
1	Host Job Fair	On October 14, 2015, our SEU co-hosted a job fair with the Quad City Times at the iWireless Center in Moline, IL. Our stations, along with the newspaper, coordinated the event, participated as an employer, and solicited over 75 other Quad City businesses to participate in the event. SEU participants included our Market President, Local Sales Manager, and qcemploye.com Director, who discussed job opportunities at the stations with attendees interested in broadcast careers.
2	Host Event/Programs Sponsored By or on Behalf of an Educational Institution Relating to Careers in Broadcasting	From January 2016 through March 2016, our SEU hosted a student from St. Ambrose University for a job shadow. Our Operations Manager met with this student on several occasions to provide him with a tour of the studio, discuss career opportunities in broadcasting, and prepare demo voice recordings.
3	Host Event/Programs Sponsored By or on Behalf of an Educational Institution Relating to Careers in Broadcasting	In February 2016, our SEU hosted a student from St. Ambrose University for a job shadow. Our Operations Manager met with this student on two occasions to provide her with a tour of the studio, discuss career opportunities in broadcasting, and prepare demo voice recordings.

5	Internet Program Designed to Promote Outreach Generally	During the reporting period, the stations manage the operations of a local career website/job board called www.qcemploye.com. The stations promote the website on-air, solicit participating local employers, and post their job openings at the stations. The website provides extensive job hunting advice and employment background information as well as individual job listings. Since its inception in 2000, qcemploye.com has dramatically increased its exposure in the Quad Cities area, reaching more than 500,000 people locally and having enrolled more than 750 local employers.
