3	3/18/2016	Establishment of an intern program designed to assist members of the community	Fifteen Clients of the Ambulatory Program which provides services for the disabled were given a tour of the IHeart Jacksonville radio facilities. The group spent time in each department with presentations by and interactions with the sales, traffic, and of course programming in the studios with On Air Personalities from several of the stations, about their jobs and careers. Since the country station was their favorite, an On Air Personality from that station invited them into his studio and visited with them about his job and career	5	see description
4	3/23/2016	Participation in other activities designed by the station employment unit	The Bridge of Northeast Florida Inc. provides the children that live in some of Jacksonville's most crime infested, impoverished neighborhoods with the opportunities they need to overcome barriers and to support them as they aspire to better their lives. The Bridge operates a "holistic" model that addresses academics, health, social enrichment, mentoring, job skills training and jobs. As such, fifty students from The Bridge of Northeast Florida were provided a tour of the IHeart Jacksonville radio facilities. The students spent time in each department with presentations by and interactions with account executives, traffic staff, and of course in the studios with On Air Personalities from several of the stations, about their jobs and careers. An On Air Personality talked with them about his job and how connected the stations are through social media such as FaceBook, Twitter, Instagram, and Snapchat, all part of their everyday lives. They were in the studio while a live show was being broadcast, and some made on air appearances.	5	See description

5	4/20/2016	Participation in events sponsored by community groups	The Media Sales Institute at the Atlanta University Center (AUC), led by Morehouse College is an intensive "boot camp" where students are immersed in learning electronic media advertising sales and sales techniques. The curriculum is designed to provide an entry into media sales for talented students of diverse backgrounds. The Jacksonville Market President was a Presenter at the program, discussing careers in radio and specifically in sales with the attendees.	1	Market President
6	9/20/2016	Participation in events sponsored by community groups	The NAB/RAB 2016 Radio Show 229 college undergraduate and graduate students were awarded registration scholarships to attend the NAB Education Foundation (NABEF)/Broadcast Education Association (BEA) Career Fair and Student Scholars Orientation on Tuesday, September 20 and the 2016 Radio Show in Nashville, September 21 – 23. Thanks to the support of 28 radio groups and associate businesses, students attended the career fair, conference orientation and a series of special networking events, entertainment and educational content geared towards students. In addition, the students participated in the conference's management, programming, sales, marketing, advertising, research, legal, technology and young professionals sessions. The Jacksonville Market President was a Presenter for several sessions addressing careers in radio and specifically in sales.	1	Market President
