By Tim Binnall

The suspect in a bizarre alleged carjacking attempt in Florida told police that the strange incident came about because he was abducted by aliens. According to a local media report, the wild case occurred on New Year's Eve when police in West Palm Beach received a call about a knife-wielding individual carving strange symbols and numbers into a vehicle. Confronted by the owner of the car, the weapon-wielding vandal demanded that he turn over his keys, which prompted the victim to smartly flee the scene and phone the police from the safety of their home.

Downloading

- To download an episode press the play button on a show.
- Once the hours are displayed you may click on the download button and once that episode is downloaded you will see this icon.
- When you play an hour that has been downloaded it will be accessible offline and does not require mobile data or wi-fi for playback.

NOTE: For those interested in permanently collecting Coast to Coast AM shows, we recommend downloading the files on our website or using Apple Podcasts, as future versions of the C2C app may not retain your saved files.

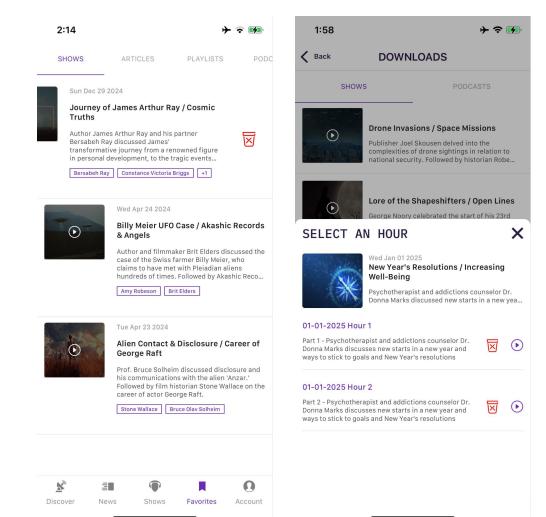

- Managing downloaded shows may be found in the Account tab
- You can also manage your Paranormal Podcast network downloads on this page by clicking on the Podcast tab in the top right.
- On this page you may see a list of shows you've downloaded and delete one's you no longer wish to have on the list.
- We recommend favoriting the shows you wish to follow in the future since app updates may occasionally remove your downloads.

Deleting Saved Content

- You can delete content from your list of favorites and from your downloads folder.
- To remove an item from favorites simply swipe left on the item and click the trash can that appears. This same method is used to remove items from the Paranormal Podcast network under Downloads.
- To remove a show from downloads you must click on the show, press play and then delete the hours you'd like to remove. To remove the full show from the list you must delete all downloaded hours.

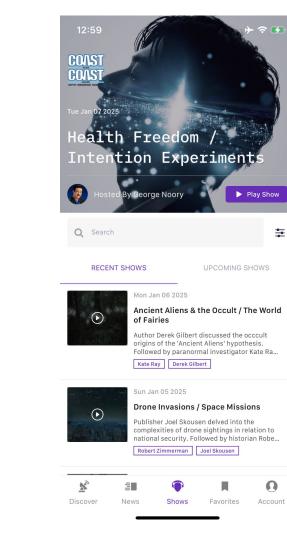

Filtering

- You can filter shows by month and year, topics or host.
- To begin, click on Filter icon next to the search bar from the Shows tab.
- Click on Topics and select the category you wish to view. You can select multiple categories.
- Once you select the desired topic you can click on the Filter Shows button.
- Click on Hosts and select the host you wish to view. You can only select one host.
- In order to see all results you'll need to click on the Reset button on the top right.

Robert Zimmerman

BIOGRAPHY

Robert Zimmerman is an award-winning space historian. writing articles and books on issues of science, history, technology, and culture. He reports on science, space, culture, and politics at his website Behind The Black. His newest book, "Conscious Choice," describes the origins of slavery in the British colonies in North America, and how the lessons of that story will directly impact future colonies on Mars. His last book, "The Universe in a Mirror: the Saga of the Hubble Space Telescope and the Visionaries Who Built It" (Princeton University Press) tells the sometimes heartbreaking story of the men and women who conceived, designed, built, screwed up, fixed, and then used the Hubble Space Telescope. His previous book, "Leaving Earth: Space Stations, Rival Superpowers, and the Quest for Interplanetary Travel," was awarded the Eugene M. Emme Award by the American Astronautical Society for the best popular space history in 2003. In 2000 he was cowinner of the David N. Schramm Award, given by the High Energy Astrophysic Division of the American Astronomical Society for Science Journalism.
