

On Sunday April 24, 2005, at the New Living Expo in San Francisco, George Noory spoke to a crowd of hundreds. After a warm introduction by Dannion Brinkley, George shared a variety of amusing stories and anecdotes. He then presented his thoughts on the possibilities for extraterrestrial life. Speaking of ETs, an 8-ft tall alien made the scene, whom George proceeded to interview. After the talk, fans had the chance to meet with George for some one-on-one time. Pictured below are George's "alien encounter" and the meet & greet session.
