Lifting Up Women In Technology

CoderGirl is a LaunchCode Education designed to engage and educate women in the technology community in St. Louis. The program begins with a 6-month learning cycle with class weekly on Wednesdays from 6:00-8:00pm, after which students begin work in the project cycle. CoderGirl provides a space for women of all skill levels to learn to code in a supportive community.

The CoderGirl program is an opportunity for women to network, learn and create. With professional mentors from companies like Climate Corporation, Asynchrony, and World Wide Technologies, you will get the training and support you need to launch a successful career in technology.
