Arrive Early:

All guests attending the 2019 Stanley Cup Final Party, you will go through a security checkpoint prior to entering the event grounds.

On June 1st, the St. Louis Cardinals are playing the Chicago Cubs at 6:15. Downtown will be busy! Regardless of the transportation mode you choose, you will want to allow extra time!

Due to the festival zone street closures, people are encouraged to arrive early.

Lane Closures

Beginning May 29, 2019 until at least Tuesday June 4, 2019:

- Two westbound lanes of Clark between 14th Street and 15th Street. Driving will be restricted during this time to one westbound lane and one eastbound lane for all traffic.
- Short term parking for those wishing to visit the St. Louis Blues Shop for St. Louis Blues apparel will be done on Clark west of the parking cutout on the street

Street Closures:

Street Closures will be in effect beginning at 1:00 pm on Friday, May 31, 2019 until at least Tuesday, June 4, 2019:

- Market Street between Tucker & 14th Street
- Chestnut between Tucker & 15th Street
- 13th Street between Pine & Market
- Kauffman Park & Poelker Park

In addition, on all game days beginning two hours before game time, during the game and one hour after the game all lanes of 14th Street between Clark Street and Market Street will be closed.

Transportation Options:

MetroLink (Recommended):

- MetroLink is the perfect option to enjoy all of the Stanley Cup and Cardinals vs. Cubs excitement in downtown St. Louis this weekend, without worrying about heavy traffic or finding a place to park.
- Sports fans can park at one of the 21 free Park-Ride lots at MetroLink: stations in Missouri and Illinois, and ride MetroLink to any of the six stations serving downtown to make it to the games, watch parties, rallies and other events taking place this weekend.
- Due to large crowds expected throughout the weekend, Metro will have extra security and personnel throughout the system to assist passengers, and will be ready to add extra trains into service, if needed.
