The Best dog Ever

In the event of a world wide squirrel invasion, my dog, Mack, would be the commander in Chief of squirrel resistance. My other dog, Chief, had a vet appointment. That was the day we saw a box full of puppies!

We picked one and had him examined too. Mack is 1 year old now I'm so glad he needed a family!

I believe Mack is the best dog in the country because of his cute wiry fur, and his great sense of smell. Also he follows me, always alert, his ears perked, and soft brown eyes wide open. He stands up for what he believes in, he thinks squirrels will attack you

"Mack squirrels won't hurt us!"

Then he barks
in loudly in reply.
Also we think he has a french accent

A really fun
adventure with Mack
was the mud incident.
I had just gotten new boots and was running through the woods and suddenly
I had fallen in a
deep ditch of mud
and was trapped
chest high in mud thankfully Mack
dragged my brother
over and I was saved
but I never did find me
boots. Mack has wavy hair and always wears
a brown sweater.

His eyes are a soft
brown just like his cute nose. He is short,
fiesty and loyal.

Mack isn't perfect
he has a drool problem
and some people think
"eww." I to on the inside that counts!

In conclusion I love Mack! If you could meet him you'd love him to. He has such a big heart
and smart brain
for a little dog.
I don't know his
breed but he is a mutt.
