United Airlines announces new service from CVG to four leisure destinations in South Carolina, Florida and Maine

Erlanger, Ky. (March 25, 2021) – United Airlines is announcing new nonstop service from Cincinnati/Northern International Airport (CVG) to Portland, Maine (PWM); Hilton Head Island, South Carolina (HHH); Charleston, South Carolina (CHS); and Pensacola, Florida (PNS).

Each new flight will operate three days a week beginning May 27th and May 28th. United will offer its upgraded premium regional jet service (CRJ 550 images and Broll) on each route with 10 First Class, 20 Premium Economy and 20 Regular Economy seating configurations. Tickets are available now at united.com.

"Throughout the pandemic, United has been strategic and thoughtful in adding flights to destinations that our customers want to visit," said Ankit Gupta, vice president of domestic network planning and scheduling at United Airlines. "With many customers now beginning to plan summer vacations in places where they can enjoy time outside, we look forward to offering new service to places like South Carolina's Lowcountry and the most flights to Portland, Maine of any U.S. airline."

The four destinations will complement United's existing year-round and seasonal nonstop service to Chicago (ORD), Denver (DEN), Houston (IAH), Newark (EWR) and Washington, D.C. (IAD).

"We are pleased United is expanding its number of nonstop destinations from CVG," said Candace McGraw, chief executive officer, CVG. "Whether locals are looking to travel north or south, United is making it more convenient and comfortable than ever to reach these highly desirable vacation spots."

About CVG Airport

The Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport (CVG) has been serving passengers since 1947. CVG welcomed more than 9.1 million passengers in 2019, serving a record number of local passengers. Amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, CVG still offers the most nonstop destinations and the lowest average fares in the region. As the 7th largest cargo airport in North America and home to the Amazon Air Hub and DHL Express Global Superhub, CVG is diversified in both passenger and cargo operations. With an annual impact of $6.8 billion on the local economy, the airport drives regional growth and remains a leader in innovation.
