

DETOURS, BEGONE ... GRANDIN ROAD IS OPEN!

And that's just the start of this month's good news.

Yes, you read that right. The routes, roads and ways to Cartridge are now clear and open. And while it seems like the closures over this past year from the brand-new bridge construction have been tedious, the construction crew has made great progress – starting the new road that will tie into the bridge, setting up all the new erosion control and water management.

Obviously, more changes are coming, but for the immediate future, all roads lead to Cartridge.

One biking note: the trail will remain closed north of us; but access from all points south of Cartridge is open as before.

That's the good news. Want the rest?

Fall FUN. Oh, we've got it (even if you've already put up your tree). We've packed this month chock-full of events, workshops, music and more!

Vets and Brews

Vets and Brews is a different organization entirely from the Brew Bus. It was founded in 2019 by a local beer fan and all-around great guy, Matt Demaris. The fundraising organization is designed to raise money to support local Veterans – but they do it in a really fun way. Here’s how it works: when you find yourself in a taproom that supports Vets and Brews, you can drop money into their collection box. That money goes to buy beer for veterans at various events – and whatever is left over is donated to Operation Honor. It’s built to show gratitude, appreciation, and love to those who have served – and does it in a way that if you have found yourself on this website – I know you can appreciate – beers.

The Team Up – Honor Bus

That all brings us back to this week. Veteran’s Day quickly approaches, and it’s the perfect time for these two folks to team up to do something spectacular. The event is going down on Saturday, and they’re going to load up a Cincy Brew Bus with a bunch of Veterans and show them a heck of a great time.

It all starts at Listermann, where the brewery is hosting its ‘Operation Flintlock’ beer release. It’s an incredibly delicious stout with coffee, vanilla, and lactose. They’re releasing the base beer, along with a number of variants like: Peanut Butter, Coconut S’mores, and a Coffee Blonde variant that I’m really, really curious to try.

From there, the bus will make its way down to Rhinegeist, in OTR for their Veterans Day event. They’re going to have a restored A7 cockpit on display in the taproom. Valor is brewed every year to honor the incredible group of veterans working at Rhinegeist. This annual release features a rotating recipe that is designed and brewed by the veterans themselves. They have specials running for Vets, are giving proceeds from their ‘Valor’ lager to the Joseph House, are hosting Top Gun trivia, and even have flight simulations going on in the parking lot. It’s going to be a blast! After that, the bus will bring everyone back to the starting point.

All along the way they’ll be buying beers and showing their guests an all-around great time. It’s going to be freaking awesome.

Thank you, Veterans!

Thank you, Veterans!

More about Operation Flintlock:
This is the 5th anniversary of Operation Flintlock! This series is a collab with the 4th Marines Division stationed just down the road from the brewery.

Operation Flintlock came to fruition when Jason Foust from the 4th Marine Division visited our taproom and offered ideas about a brew specific to honoring those who have so generously served our country. The name "Operation Flintlock" was the codename for the first battle the 4th Marine Division fought in during WWII, the Battle of Roi Namur.

Every year we release this highly drinkable, low ABV Stout around Veteran's Day. This release also marks the kick off of the US Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots drive in our taproom. 10% of the proceeds from Operation Flintlock sales are donated to Toys for Tots. We will also have boxes in the taproom to collect toys. For the 5th anniversary of Operation Flintlock, we are kicking it up a notch. You can expect to see Operation Flintlock and Operation Flintlock | Peanut Butter along with Operation Flintlock | Coconut S'more, and the special 5th anniversary beer, Operation Flintlock | Coffee Blonde. We will also have 2 new t-shirt designs and Operation Flintlock | Coffee Blonde posters for sale!

This year we are proud to partner with Vets & Brews. In a nutshell, Vets & Brews collects $10 donations online & uses those donations to buy veterans beers at local craft breweries. Vet's & Brews pays full price for the beer & whatever is left over goes to Operation Honor. They are a local non-profit in NKY that is the sole supplier of Veteran flag boxes to Arlington National Cemetery.

The taproom will also have a donation flag box (made at Operation Honor) to collect cash donations. Cash donations are tallied up quarterly & pre pay for the beers we will offer to veterans whenever one visits the taproom.

Urban Artifact brewery's Teak tropical American fruit tart named one of 20 best for 2022 by Craft Beer & Brewing

By Andy Brownfield – Senior staff reporter, Cincinnati Business Courier Nov 10, 2022

Craft Beer & Brewing, a magazine founded in 2014 to cover the exploding industry, named Northside brewery Urban Artifact's Teak, a tropical American fruit tart, one of its 20 best beers of 2022. It was the only brewery in the Cincinnati region to be honored.

Urban Artifact opened its doors in 2015. It specializes in tart and sour beers, especially fruit tarts. The brewery said each can of Teak has one-seventh of a pineapple, one-fifth of a pink guava and two key limes in each can. The beer is 7.2% alcohol by volume and retails for $13.99 for a six-pack of 12-ounce cans.

Craft Beer & Brewing called Urban Artifact "masters of modern American fruit beer," complementing the brewery's ability to put big fruit flavors into its beers, supporting it with acidity and making the beers broadly appealing.

Regarding Teak, the magazine wrote:

Tiki-toned Teak drops pineapple, pink guava, and limes into the blender, only suggesting the smooth coconut of piña colada via an umbrella-drink mind trick. If the nose promises sweetness, the sip deftly avoids it, keeping all that bright pineapple and earthy guava integrated, full, and balanced, with a sharp, zesty accent from the lime. It all tastes natural because it is, whipped up in the vacation rental's Vitamix by your cool drunk aunt, while following the proven Urban Artifact blueprint of refreshing tartness and a drying finish.

Craft Beer & Brewing gave Teak a score of 99 points out of 100.

The magazine annually ranks what its editors pick as the best new beers of the year, calling them the "pinnacles of the craft."
