Northside burger restaurant Tickle Pickle opens second location inside of craft brewery Listermann

By Andy Brownfield – Senior staff reporter, Cincinnati Business Courier Dec 12, 2022

A Northside burger joint just opened its second restaurant location inside of a Cincinnati craft brewery.

Tickle Pickle, which first opened on Hamilton Avenue in Northside in 2015, opened its second location inside of Listermann Brewing Co. at 1621 Dana Ave. in Evanston on Nov. 28.

Tickle Pickle offers a menu of piled-high hamburgers, with a robust vegan offering. Menu items include:

- Breadzeppelin, a cheeseburger with American cheese, mayonnaise, ketchup, lettuce, tomato, onion, and pickle
- Meatallica, with mayonnaise, American cheese, bacon and egg, with goetta available (and recommended) as an addition
- Rob Zomwich, with cheddar, spicy ketchup, hot sauce, a jalapeno popper, grilled peppers and onions and banana peppers on a pretzel bun
- Buns N Roses, a black bean burger on a vegan bun with spicy ketchup, lettuce, tomato, onion, and pickle
- When Buns Cry, an Impossible meatless burger with spinach, caramelized onion, tomato, and balsamic dressing

Listermann Brewing started out as a homebrew supply store in 1991 before becoming a production brewery in 2008. Tickle Pickle will operate during its taproom hours (noon to 9 p.m. Sunday through Thursday, staying open an hour later until 10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday) and offer delivery through DoorDash.

The partnership to bring Tickle Pickle inside of the brewery came after Listermann made the decision to close its freestanding restaurant, the Listermann Brewing Trail House, nearby at 3701 Montgomery Road. That August closure stemmed from the pressures facing the entire restaurant industry, including a staffing crunch, rising ingredient costs and the lingering effects of the Covid-19 pandemic.

English Strong Ale | ABV 8.5% IBU 25

Classic British Ale yeast produces a smooth fruitiness that compliments the complex roasted ness and slight chocolate finish. A great winter warmer!

It's Back! This Time, Barrel-Aged! Socially Influenced From Streetside.

The Gnarly Gnome December 14, 2022

Last year, Streetside invited a group of local folks (“influencers” ... if you will) to help them craft a beer that would be a fun way to tie the community together. They nailed it, too. If you didn't get a chance to try the big ‘Pastry Brown Ale With Waffles’ at the tapping event last year, I have great news for you this month... it's back! A beer meant to showcase community, beer, and collaboration... it was something really fun when it all came together last time.

A ton of folks around town work their butts off to showcase what makes Cincinnati special. I'm not just talking about the beer scene, either. There are Instagrammers that showcase the small businesses around their community, and bloggers that write about the restaurants that we all know have had a heck of a time over the last couple of years to keep doing what they do. There are podcasters, YouTubers, and more.

Why Streetside?

Streetside is a great example of a community brewery in Cincinnati. They have always been dialed into their neighborhood, their customers, and how to play with trendy “stuff” while staying true to their roots. They are an influencer in the Cincinnati Beer scene and a natural fit for a collaboration like this. It doesn't hurt things that they make insanely good beer, either.

Who Else is Involved?

There were a ton of folks involved in this project – and I don't know everyone super well... so bear with me if I miss someone and have to go back and fix it!

This Year's Release

We didn't talk a lot about it last year, but when the Streetside team brewed up Socially Influenced last year, a little bit of it was tucked away in a bourbon barrel... just to see what would happen. Lucky for us, things turned out great... and they're ready to release it for all of us to enjoy together!

The brewery is throwing a big event this year for the winter solstice and not only will Barrel-Aged Socially Influenced be hitting taps (and cans) but there are going to be three different, big barrel-aged beers released that day. It's going to be a celebration of not just the big “social” community, but of winter drinking in general.

It is all happening at the Streetside taproom on 12/21 from 4-10 pm – which... brings up another point that I know someone will point out. It might be a little chilly outside. Not only will these big barrel-aged beers warm you up from the inside, but Streetside is going to have a bourbon barrel fire on the patio for you to hang out around, too.
