Fabled Brew Works Brewery & Taproom

331 Kenton Lands Rd, Suite 300 Erlanger, KY 41018

Fabled Brew Works will be a small craft brewery and meadery with rotating food trucks. Our team is dedicated not just to the beverages that we brew, but to the experiences that come with them. Our beer menu will focus on a variety of bold stouts, refreshing IPAs, and fruited sours while maintaining a selection of carefully crafted traditional styles as well. Our mead menu will showcase a wide array of fruits and dessert-inspired delights. Barrel-aging will be a significant priority.

Our atmosphere will provide elements of fantasy and folk lore to conjure a unique and comfortable environment. We hope you will visit us and stay for a while. It's time for an adventure.

We at Fabled Brew Works are happy to announce our head brewer and co-owner John Ewers. John started his brewing career in 2016 at Listermann Brewing, before moving to Streetside in 2021 as their head brewer. We are excited to use John's expertise in big flavorful stouts and juicy New England IPA's while also pushing the limits on new flavors and traditional styles. Welcome to the Adventure!

Brewing started about 2 weeks ago! It is so satisfying to finally know that they have beer in all these tanks. Head brewer John Ewers has been killing it so we can be ready to open in early summer! 🍷 Beers currently fermenting are 2 different Stouts, an American Lager, a Mexican Lager, a Milkshake IPA, and a Coffee Blonde Ale. Any guesses what John is working on next?

They are Celebrating ALL Month Long! Stop by all during May to Help Them Celebrate 20 Years!
