Hialeah Police Press Release

Case: 2024-5941

On Sunday, March 3rd, 2024, the above depicted suspect entered the Goodwill, located at 4410 West 16th Avenue, in Hialeah.

While inside the store, the suspect waited for a female to occupy the dressing room and proceeded to use the dressing room right next to the victim.

While the 49 year old female victim was using the dressing room, she noticed the suspect had reached over into her dressing room with his cell phone in hand and was recording her while she undressed.

The victim immediately exited the dressing room and ran to the front of the store seeking assistance.

As the victim made her way to the front of the store, the suspect fled the scene.

If anyone recognizes the above depicted suspect or believes that they too have been victims of a similar incident, we ask that you please contact the Hialeah Police Department at (305) 687-2525 and ask to speak with detectives.

End of Release.
