The beer will be flowing at Factory 52's newest event this summer. The mixed-use development in Norwood announced it is launching 52 Taps, a new beer festival happening Saturday-Sunday, July 20-21. 52 Taps will showcase Cincinnati's craft beer scene with a selection of 52 unique beers from both local and regional breweries. Beers offered at 52 Taps will cover a range of styles, including IPAs, lagers, sours and barrel-aged brews. "Whether you're a seasoned beer connoisseur or just starting to explore the world of craft beers, 52 Taps has something to tantalize your taste buds. Discover hidden gems from up-and-coming breweries and find your new favorite pint alongside fellow beer lovers," Factory 52 said in a press release.

Hi-Wire and Fretboard Breweries welcome you to come and enjoy this new tradition happening between their two taprooms!

You can buy 52 Taps tickets online at Resy or in person at the event. Tickets are $1 each, and beer samples will cost two tickets, while full-size pints will cost six to eight tickets. 52 Taps will also feature live music and other outdoor entertainment and games with the schedule planned to be released soon.

52 Taps runs from noon to 10 p.m. Saturday, July 20,
And noon to 8 p.m. on Sunday, July 21.

Factory 52, 4590 Beech St., Norwood. More info: www.factory52.com.

Story

It's in tents.

This New Zealand Style IPA is a secluded stay in a deep, dank forest full of Nelson hops. Fresh, alluring citrus aromas culminate in notes of resinous pine at the trail end. Camp Nelson is a limited release, available in 6-packs and the latest Hop Box hoppy variety pack!
