

This Thursday we brewed a big collaboration beer with Narrow Path, Third Eye, Mad Tree, Brink, Christian Moerlein and Municipal Brew Works. These are all breweries who are prior winners of the Cincy Toolbank Brewers Philanthropy Award. We are brewing a beer for the Toolbank's big annual fundraiser "Hammers and Ales" on October 3rd.

September 4th we are hosting "Pints and Pages" a book swap. Bring gently used books to trade. Lane Public Library will bring books and there will be "Monkey and Bug at Cornstand Jam" children's books available and copies of the "One City One Book - Hamilton" available.

September 5th the Pour House in Hamilton will be putting together Children's literacy kits and September 6th is National Read a Book Day.

Friend of DB,

Hello from the brewhouse, for what may be the last time in this format. As some of you know, there are changes coming to DogBerry in the near future. The statement below will give you an idea of what the future of DB could look like. With that said, we would like to send a big thank you to anyone who has ever set foot in either location of DogBerry Brewing LLC. To celebrate what has been an incredible ten years we are going to throw one last bash! On September 7th, 2024, we will be throwing the last big celebration coupled with the last version of the current Mug Club Party. We will be open from 12-11pm, and we would love to see your smiling faces and throw down a couple of pints with you! Details on entertainment and timing will be forthcoming on our social media pages, so be sure to stay plugged in to those! What we can say is that there will be a bundle of great college football games on TV all day and we will be having a Chili Cookoff as well! We look forward to having a big time with you all on the 7th, be sure to stay tuned to social media for all the details!

Thank you all, so very much!

Celebrate Oktoberfest in OTR at Rhinegeist!

CINCINNATI, OH (August 26, 2024) – Rhinegeist is very excited to announce OTRberfest, a unique, Over-the-Rhine-focused Oktoberfest celebration taking place in their taproom at 1910 Elm St. The celebration is happening from noon on Friday, September 6th to 9pm Sunday, September 8th. The weekend-long festival will celebrate all things beer in the heart of Cincinnati's historic German brewing district. Other businesses and institutions from the neighborhood will be joining Rhinegeist to make OTRberfest a uniquely historic, community-based addition to the Cincinnati area's slate of Oktoberfest celebrations.

Located catty-corner from Rhinegeist in Over-the-Rhine, Northern Row Brewery & Distillery will offer OTRberfest programming in their taproom as well. "Nowhere else in the US does Oktoberfest mean as much as it does to Cincinnatians, so when Rhinegeist asked us about helping host a neighborhood Oktoberfest it was an emphatic Yes!" says Brendan Douglass, Operations Manager at Northern Row in Over-the-Rhine. "Hosting an Oktoberfest celebration in our historic Brewery District where we have operating breweries is a special opportunity."

OTRberfest at Rhinegeist will feature a variety of beer-focused and Oktoberfest-inspired activities, including tours led by the Brewing Heritage Trail, guest beers on tap, a cream puff eating contest hosted by Schmidt's Sausage Haus Restaurant, a stein holding competition hosted by the OTR Chamber of Commerce, live music by the Cincy German Band, and Goat Yoga hosted by Good Green Earth Farm. "We are thrilled to be a part of the first annual OTRberfest at Rhinegeist," says Julie Clayton, Executive Director of the OTR Chamber of Commerce. "We wanted to lead a fun spectator event that not only fit the theme, but would bring excitement to the weekend, which is why we chose the Stein Holding Competition!"

Schmidt's Sausage Haus Restaurant will also be offering Oktoberfest-inspired food on site throughout the weekend. "Not only are we excited to finally have our food trucks present in Cincinnati, but we are really excited to partner up with Rhinegeist and celebrate at OTRberfest! It should be an amazing weekend during the best time of the year. Prost!" adds Matt Schmidt, Brand Ambassador at Schmidt's.

Cincinnati Beverage Company will also be on-site in the Rhinegeist taproom sharing some history and a love of beer in the Festgarten, featuring traditional German selections from their portfolio on draft. "We are excited to join the OTRberfest and see no better place for the celebration than the heart of Cincinnati's historic brewing heritage," adds Elliott Culter, Chief Operations Officer at Cincinnati Beverage Company. "Christian Moerlein operated in the Rhinegeist Brewery over 100 years ago and we are thrilled to be back, serving traditional German style beers, reminiscent of what they brewed in the early 1900s."

OTRberfest is FREE and open to the public. Follow @rhinegeist for updates on specific programming and more information. PROST!
