Bagpipes of Bardstown!

This Scotch Ale starts off thick and rich, then surprises you with notes of toffee and caramel. And to top it off, it's been aged in Whiskey barrels, so it's like a warm hug from a Highlander... who's been sipping on some bourbon.

Celebrate Oktoberfest in OTR at Rhinegeist!

CINCINNATI, OH (August 26, 2024) – Rhinegeist is very excited to announce OTRberfest, a unique, Over-the-Rhine-focused Oktoberfest celebration taking place in their taproom at 1910 Elm St. The celebration is happening from noon on Friday, September 6th to 9pm Sunday, September 8th. The weekend-long festival will celebrate all things beer in the heart of Cincinnati's historic German brewing district. Other businesses and institutions from the neighborhood will be joining Rhinegeist to make OTRberfest a uniquely historic, community-based addition to the Cincinnati area's slate of Oktoberfest celebrations.

Located catty-corner from Rhinegeist in Over-the-Rhine, Northern Row Brewery & Distillery will offer OTRberfest programming in their taproom as well. "Nowhere else in the US does Oktoberfest mean as much as it does to Cincinnatians, so when Rhinegeist asked us about helping host a neighborhood Oktoberfest it was an emphatic Yes!" says Brendan Douglass, Operations Manager at Northern Row in Over-the-Rhine. "Hosting an Oktoberfest celebration in our historic Brewery District where we have operating breweries is a special opportunity."

OTRberfest at Rhinegeist will feature a variety of beer-focused and Oktoberfest-inspired activities, including tours led by the Brewing Heritage Trail, guest beers on tap, a cream puff eating contest hosted by Schmidt's Sausage Haus Restaurant, a stein holding competition hosted by the OTR Chamber of Commerce, live music by the Cincy German Band, and Goat Yoga hosted by Good Green Earth Farm. "We are thrilled to be a part of the first annual OTRberfest at Rhinegeist," says Julie Clayton, Executive Director of the OTR Chamber of Commerce. "We wanted to lead a fun spectator event that not only fit the theme, but would bring excitement to the weekend, which is why we chose the Stein Holding Competition!"

Schmidt's Sausage Haus Restaurant will also be offering Oktoberfest-inspired food on site throughout the weekend. "Not only are we excited to finally have our food trucks present in Cincinnati, but we are really excited to partner up with Rhinegeist and celebrate at OTRberfest! It should be an amazing weekend during the best time of the year. Prost!" adds Matt Schmidt, Brand Ambassador at Schmidt's.

Cincinnati Beverage Company will also be on-site in the Rhinegeist taproom sharing some history and a love of beer in the Festgarten, featuring traditional German selections from their portfolio on draft. "We are excited to join the OTRberfest and see no better place for the celebration than the heart of Cincinnati's historic brewing heritage," adds Elliott Culter, Chief Operations Officer at Cincinnati Beverage Company. "Christian Moerlein operated in the Rhinegeist Brewery over 100 years ago and we are thrilled to be back, serving traditional German style beers, reminiscent of what they brewed in the early 1900s."

OTRberfest is FREE and open to the public. Follow @rhinegeist for updates on specific programming and more information. PROST!

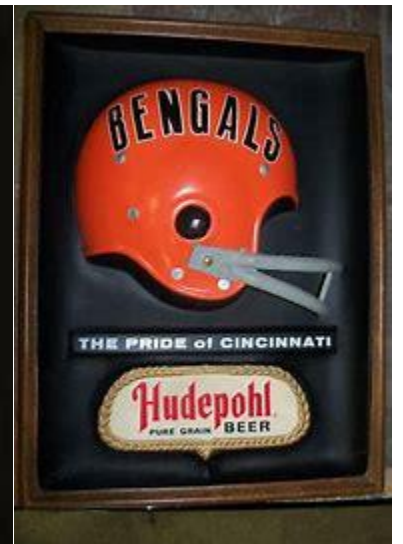

Mad hops and props to PsychOPathy, our classic IPA (the first canned craft beer in Ohio!), and its newly redesigned can! Remember way back when we asked you to help influence our can designs? So many of you took our survey and gave us your opinion. Our new PsychOPathy can is a direct result of your feedback - thank you! So, what's changed? The can is easier to read, highlights MadTree being Rooted in Cincy, and creates a fun and interesting new illustration that brings to life and celebrates the hoppiness within PsychOPathy.

Join us Friday, September 20th at the Oakley taproom from 6pm-11pm for Psych Night as we celebrate our favorite IPA with live music from The Almond Butter Band, interactive art exhibits, giveaways and beer tastings.

Zieglerfest is back! Join us on Saturday, September 14th for stein holding competitions, live music from an authentic German band, games, pretzels, prizes and Ziegler, our award-winning Oktoberfest beer! Make reservations now for your group of 10+ to get the best seat in the house!
