Slowpoke

Chocolate Milk Stout

Keep it mooooving, slowpoke!
This stout meticulously combines chocolatey malts, cacao nibs, and velvety lactose. The result? A luxurious full-bodied stout with rich flavors of dark malts and creamy sweetness.

Did you know?

The cacao nibs that give Slowpoke its rich chocolatey flavor is sourced locally from Maverick Chocolate Co. in downtown Cincinnati! The lactose addition helps round out the bitter chocolate flavor and make this decadent stout taste like creamy, delicious chocolate milk.
